

The PSAC BC Racially Visible Caucus and the Union of National Employees BC and Yukon invite you to CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

with a series of posters, facts, and bookmarks that commemorate black writers.

Dionne Brand born 1953, Trinidad and Tobago

Widely known for her 2006 novel What We All Long For, Brand has penned numerous fiction, non-fiction and poetry titles - such as the poetry collection Inventory and Love Enough.

Issues such as race, migration, queer desire and patriarchal oppression often recur in Brand's work, all couched within the breathtaking beauty of her prose.

Formerly the Poet Laureate of Toronto and a current Professor of English at the University of Guelph, Brand's work is a definite staple for any Canadian feminist's bookshelf.
