

Report to B.C. Regional Council

Jason Salchert	September 7, 2011
D.C.L and Smaller Separate employers
Activities since last RC meeting
Activity	How it fulfilled role on B.C. Council
Since the last regional council meeting, Patrick Bragg and I have created a contact list for this constituency.	We now have a comprehensive list of the Executives from each Local within my constituency.
Each week I send out information pertaining to unionized work forces across Canada.	Engage the membership on various levels regarding the Regional Council.
I have been actively organizing in my region to help the P.S.A.C and my constituency evolve with the ever changing work force.	I am attempting to achieve greater union density in a rapidly expanding non union work force.
I have attended meetings with various employers in hopes to achieve a stronger working relationship between the parties.
Challenges you had to cope with since the last meeting
The first order of business was to figure out and explain to the members what exactly the Regional Council and its caucus provides for the membership.
Another challenge is attempting to attend meetings for Locals who are in different geographical areas.

What would you like to work on next?
I would like to work out a travel schedule for some of the Island locals and the necessary funding to attend their meetings.